

March 22, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

The Fort Belknap Indian Community will host the first ever Energy Development in Indian Country, Protection of Air Quality and the Environment Conference August 17-19, 2010 in Billings Montana. The Conference Planning Committee has identified your organization as a potential participant in this conference. There are many ways your organization may choose to participate, including: exhibit information about your organization, donate promotional items for conference participants, sell and market technology and products, and offer training opportunities to participants.

Who will be at the conference? Over 75 people representing regional and national Tribal environmental agencies, state and local energy development representatives and cultural representatives from Tribal nations.

Why participate? This is your opportunity to share information and market your products and services to Tribal and non-Tribal organizations involved in energy development in the Region.

What can we donate? Raffle items, promotional items, and reference materials.

Where do I send donation items? Please contact Allyson Kelley for shipping information.

How much does it cost to be an exhibitor? The cost is $30 per exhibitor, this covers the cost of one conference registration fee and includes one table during the conference.

PAYMENT Registration fees are payable on-site during regular conference check-in. Check or money order will be accepted during the Conference. Please make payable to the Fort Belknap Indian Community, Environmental Department RR 1 Box 66 Harlem, MT 59526. If you have additional questions please contact: Allyson Kelley at kellelyallyson@gmail.com or Adriann Killsnight at blackbirdwoman@hotmail.com

For more information visit our website at: www.fbicedc.org/

We appreciate your support for our Conference.

The Fort Belknap Conference Planning Committee